OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 22nd February 1957

No. 17-Pres./57.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Police:—

Names of the officers and ranks

- (i) Shri Nowsherwan Framroze Suntook, I.P.S., formerly Superintendent of Police, Andaman and Nicobar Islands.
- (ii) Shri Fredric Walter Burn, Inspector of Bush Police, Andaman and Nicobar Islands.
- (iii) Shri Hla Din, Constable No. 99, Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

Statement of service for which the decorations have been awarded.—On the 17th January 1956, a party consisting of Shri N. F. Suntook, I.P.S., Superintendent of Police, Shri F. W. Burn, Inspector, Bush Police, and Constable Hla Din, visited a Jarawa encampment on the West Coast of South Andaman Island on a mission of friendship and presentation of gifts to this primitive tribe, traditionally hostile to strangers. The party went ashore in a dinghy, which was left in charge of Constable Hla Din. Shri Suntook and Shri Burn proceeded inland to the deserted Jarawa encampment, where they left a fresh set of gifts. When they had nearly returned to the water's edge, they were set upon by armed Jarawas who started shooting arrows from about 20 yards. Shri Burn fired a shot from his revolver to keep them at bay, deliberately aiming low so as not to hit any of them, and later Constable Hla Din fired a burst with a Sten-gun into the sand to hold them off sufficiently to allow the officers to embark into the dinghy which he had brought alongside. The dinghy moved off safely followed by flights of arrows launched by the Jarawas.

Throughout the incident these three police officers behaved with commendable coolness and courage at risk of death or injury to themselves, while avoiding bodily injury or hurt to the Jarawas.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and in the cases of Shri Fredric Walter Burn and Shri Hla Din carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
